For each course you intend to take, write the CODE (i.e. 2300 for English 10) in the spaces at right. Planning 10 has been filled in for you, as it is a required course. NOTE: Please choose your courses carefully. Make sure you list 1 or 2 alternates. Note that alternates are linked to the course beside them. You may not be permitted to change course selections after the timetable has been built. We consider all course selections final as of March 8.

Required Courses (choose 1 from each row)			Write in course code (eg 2300) that goes with each choice from right in the spaces below:
English 10 (2300)	Or	English 10 Adapted (2301)	1.	230__
Social Studies 10 (2310)	Or	Social Studies 10 Adapted (2311)	2.	231__
Science 10 (2320)	Or	Science 10 Adapted (2321)	3.	232__
Mathematics 10 Foundations&Precalculus (2330)	Or	Mathematics 10 Apprenticeship&Workplace (2331)	4.	233__
Physical Education 10 (2340)			5.	2340
Planning 10 (2399)			6.	2399
Note: If you intend to go to university, check the requirements carefully. You may be required to take a second language up to grade 11 or 12. Plan ahead.
Selected Studies (Choose 2 & 1 alternate each. Alternates are matched to your top choice.)
See the list of available course options on the reverse of this form.			7.	2_____ ←alt
Use these spaces for courses that take place outside the timetable (Jazz Band, Choir, Theatre Company, etc.)			8.	2_____ ←alt
			Extra 1
			Extra 2

If you require any Grade 9 courses, contact your counsellor to assist with finding the appropriate course codes. Please note that students repeating courses are not guaranteed spots in the following year; if you have failed a course, consider taking summer school to avoid falling a year behind.

ESL
ESL students, how many years of ESL studies have you completed? _____
Note: All ESL students must make an appointment with the ESL co-ordinator to set up testing and/or to discuss course selections.
Special Education
All students requiring Special Education Services must book an appointment with the counselor or with Special Education Services to discuss their specific programming needs. If you require a Supported Learning block, make sure you put the code 2800 into space 7 or 8.
